Hey mate,

thanks for sending this through, it really helps me figure out where I am at and what I need.

So atm I have $10,000 in savings, my settlement for the Ellenbrook house goes through on the 6/10 and I should end up with a further $30,000 and my tax has been done and getting a refund of $18,000. So there will be a short fall.

I have found a place in Joondalup that I am interested in going for and it also has a u it attached to it which is rented out until July so has its own income in the property I'm looking at. I have attached a link for it below.

Additionally I was thinking if I could perhaps use equity in my house here in Waggrakine see if I have made anything on it cause the market has increased so I have had a look at properties in my area for sale and found 2 for sale on my street, same size one nearly identical to mine, but bit more run down, selling for 375 and another one just a bit bigger for 395. I will try and attach those links aswell.

I have $273,00 owing on mine so there maybe some equity we could use. Plus I have done some Reno's to my place, new carpets, painting, put a spa in etc which may help the evaluation.

Anyway let me know your thoughts.

Regards,

Gavin Avery
